Synopsis

Sophie is a bright young girl who loves to draw. She is excited to make friends at her new school but not all of her classmates are as accepting of her as she had hoped because of her physical disability. Sophie has Muscular Dystrophy, a condition that causes her muscles to weaken over time. With support from her parents as well as her old and new-found friends, Sophie must work hard to find her place among her peers while dealing with her own personal challenges. Join Sophie as she embarks on this amazing journey of self-discovery, love and hope.
